LOBELIA

No.: 1821 Source: Lodge & Helen Walton

Original in the possession of : source Society

Print located in : albums file

Date :

Subject :

Barrel stave mill on Cave Run near Lobelia operated by N. E. Walton

Original in the possession of : (source) Society

Print located in : (albums) file

Date :

Subject :

Walton's Store, Lobelia

Building built about 1901 by P
& Peck. Sold to Davis
then sold to N. E. Walton
1905. Not active as a st

182

No. : 1823

Source : Lodge & Helen Wa

Original in the possession of : source Society

Print located in : albums file

Date :

Subject :

View of Lobelia taken from t

South

1824 Source : Lodge & Helen Walton

Original in the possession of : source Society

Print located in : albums file

Date :

Subject :

Walton's store, Lobelia

Norval Eustis & Elizabeth Ellen Walton standing at left.

See also # 1822, 1899, 1900

1824

No. : 1857 Source : Lodge & Helen Wa

Original in the possession of : (source) Society

Print located in : (albums) file

Date :

Subject :

Group watching a baptism in Hills Creek at Lobelia across Waltons Store

1857

No.: 1860 Source: Lodge & Helen Walton

Original in the possession of: source Society

Print located in: albums file

Date:

Subject:

Same as #1821 but from original photo

Barrel stave mill on Cave Run near Lobelia operated by N. E. Walton

1860

No. : 1899 Source : Lodge & Helen Wa

Original in the possession of : source Society

Print located in : albums file

Date :

Subject :

Walton's store, Cohelia

See also # 1822, 1824, 1900

1899

1900

passed through Marlinton Wednesday with a large drove of two year old cattle which he had bought in the Levels and was taking to his grazing farm near Franklin.

The children who are to take part in the anniversary exercises of Marlinton Lodge, No. 182, I. O. O. F., at the Methodist church tonight, have been practicing their part of the program for several days past. A large attendance is looked for at the exercises tonight which promise to be very interesting.

Now is the time for Marlinton residents to clean up around their places to a depth of five and six feet, while the mercury registers eight degrees below the freezing point.

Lee McCoy passed through Lobelia on his way to Richwood.

Prof. T. A. Bruffey has been doing some surveying on Locust creek.

J. A. Young made a flying trip to Seebert Friday.

Alex. Anderson, of Greenbrier county, is visiting friends and relatives near Lobelia.

Anderson Blake is building a dwelling house on his farm on Caesar Mountain.

Charley Scott is moving to S. E McCarty's farm.

Miss Josephine Clutter is on the sick list.

C. J. McCarty is doing some wheelwright work for the Cran-

The Lobelia football team met last Saturday and had a very interesting game. The will play again next Saturday.

P. M. Townsend lost a fine cow a few days ago.

N. E. Walton made a business trip to Greenbrier recently.

Miss Josephine Clutter, who has been critically ill the past few weeks, is now convalescent.

D. M. Kennison lost one of his horses.

G. B. Hill has moved his family to M. L. Beard's farm near Academy where he will do some carpenter work this summer.

The weather is extremely wet. The farmers are all done sowing oats; but there is no corn planted that we have heard of.

Raudolph Hamrick, of Stamping creek, was at Lobelia on business backward condition. Grass is growing well. Wheat is doing very well.

C. F. Hull and his wife spent a few days visiting H. W. Hull.

Kennison and Payne are moving their saw mill to Laurel run on Hill's creek where they will do some sawing for J. W. Gordon.

Harry Henry who has been in Charleston a few months past is at home on a visit.

Dr. Rossegger preached some very able sermons to large congregations during his quarterly meeting services at New Lebanon.

Prof. W. Anderson, of Winchester, Ky. spent a few days recently visiting his father J. M. Anderson.

D. L. Hill is hauling a fine lot of lumber to Seebert.

The sheep raisers, of Lobelia are suffering considerable loss from the ravages of a bear. Strenuous efforts are being made to secure his pelt. Several shots have been shall serve the people.

Lobelia.

We had our first frost this morning Sept. 27th. It did very little damage.

William Morgan, who has been living for sometime near Slaty Fork, is moving to Bruffey's creek.

Earnest Moore, of Lewisburg, has bought Henry Gilmore's farm in this neighborhood known as the R. W. Hill farm.

T. A. Bruffey has just returned from Jamestown.

Jessie Tharp is on the sicklist.

Harper Anderson has just returned from Ohio where he has been visiting his sister.

William Goods' house was burned down last Saturday with all its contents